

Notice of Error, Resolution for Information or Qualified Written Request

A Notice of Error, Request for Information or Qualified Written Request is a request for NASB to research an error or dispute regarding the servicing of your mortgage, or to request information or documentation regarding your mortgage.

Under federal law, a residential mortgage loan borrower has the right to submit a written Notice of Error, Request for Information or Qualified Written Request to the servicer of their mortgage loan. The servicer is required to acknowledge receipt of the inquiry, research and respond to the written inquiry.

To submit your inquiry to NASB:

- Provide the borrower's name.
- Provide the account number.
- Describe the specific error that you believe has occurred during the servicing of your mortgage loan or describe the specific information that you are seeking.
- Do not write your request or claim on your payment coupon or statement.
- Send your inquiry in writing to the following designated address:

NASB
Attn: Loan Servicing
903 E. 104th St, Suite 400
Kansas City, MO 64131
