

IT'S SO EASY TO SWITCH.

NASB Switch Kit

DISCOVER NASB

Let's Get Started

Simply follow the steps below and use the forms provided.

Step 1: Open a NASB checking account online or in a branch.

- Open an account online at nasb.com/checking.
- Use our branch and ATM locator at nasb.com/ATM to find the NASB bank branch closest to you.

Step 2: Enroll in NASB Internet Banking.

- Easily track your direct deposits, automatic withdrawals or payments and checks as they clear your NASB account.
- Enroll in Internet Banking at nasb.com/IB.

Step 3: Stop using your former checking account.

- Be sure to leave sufficient funds in your former account until all outstanding checks have cleared and any automatic payments/withdrawals have been successfully transferred to NASB.

Step 4: Switch your Direct Deposits.

- Print and complete the Direct Deposit Authorization Form.
- Take the form to your employer's payroll department.
- View sample cover letter.

Step 5: Redirect your automatic payments/withdrawals.

- Print and complete the Automatic Withdrawal Authorization Form.
- Contact each company to provide your new checking account number and routing transit number. Use our Switch Kit Checklist to gather all of your information in one place for easy reference.
- View sample cover letter.

Step 6: Close your former account at the other institution.

- Ensure that all checks and transactions have cleared.
- Print and complete the Account Closure Authorization Form.
- Transfer the remaining balance to your new NASB account and close the former account.
- Remember to shred or destroy any old checks and debit cards for security purposes. Bring them to any NASB branch location and we'd be happy to handle this for you!

We're here to help.

If we can be of assistance throughout the transition, please call any of our branch locations or Deposit Services at 816.316.4000.

Routing and Account Numbers

1. The bank's routing number is the 9-digit number located in the bottom left corner of your check.
2. Your account number is the set of numbers appearing just after the routing number.

It's that simple!

Thank you for choosing NASB. We value and appreciate your business.
